

RWI Hires National Director for Business Development

For Immediate Release

Contact: Sharon Douglas, CEO 619.954.7100

San Marcos, CA (February 7, 2011) – RWI, a managed care and return-to-work services company based in North San Diego County, CA, has hired Robyn Azevedo as National Business Development Director. Ms. Azevedo will be responsible for developing markets outside the California region in RWI's line of managed care and return to work services. These services include Utilization Review, Case Management, Bill Review, ADA/AA Compliance Programs and Ergonomic services.

Ms. Azevedo brings over 21 years of workers' compensation experience to RWI. She has a wide range of experience in the insurance industry including Claims Examiner, Client Services Manager and Area Vice President for an international brokerage firm.

Sharon Douglas, CEO commented, "Our founder Carol Holub has always said my claims background has enhanced RWI's ability to customize innovative managed care programs by understanding the regulatory aspects and nuances of claims handling. Robyn's claims and broker experience will certainly enhance RWI's ability to now provide creative case management solutions for new national clients".

RWI certainly appreciates the ongoing support, and partnerships we have formed with our long term clients. With our expansion into the national market we welcome the opportunity to provide customized programs creating effective cost containment strategies for employers.
